Inspired Songs

Brahms Lullaby

I prefer to agree with Beethoven and Brahms that the inspiration of their works "is the [same] power that created our earth and the whole universe." from "Talks with Great Composers" by Arthur M. Abell, published by Philosophical Library, NYC, NY.

Brahms' entire quote is as follows:

"I immediately feel vibrations that thrill my whole being. These are the Spirit illuminating the soul power within, and in this exalted state, I see clearly what is obscure in my ordinary moods: Then I feel capable of drawing inspiration from above, as Beethoven did...Straightway the ideas flow in upon me, directly from God, and not only do I see distinct themes in my mind's eye but they are clothed in the right forms, harmonies and orchestration. Measure by measure, the finished product is revealed to me when I am in those rare, inspired moods."

"The powers from which all truly great composers like Mozart, Schubert, Bach and Beethoven drew their inspiration is the same power that enabled Jesus to work his miracles. It is the power that created our earth and the whole universe."
